Professional statment (refined version)

I am an aspiring cybersecurity professional passionate about protecting data and mitigating threats through ethical hacking and proactive security measures. With strong problem-solving skills and a commitment to continuous learning, I aim to contribute as a Security Analyst or Penetration Tester, helping organizations safeguard their assets and stay ahead of evolving threats. I am actively pursuing certifications like CompTIA Security+ and seeking hands-on experience to further develop my expertise in cybersecurity.